

For the EFT Practitioner "Getting Rapport"

Dr. Lees is an EFT Expert and a Certified International NLP Trainer. He has conducted over 5,000 one-on-one EFT sessions and is the author of "EFT - What is it and how does it work?" and co-author of "Freedom at your Fingertips."

Dr. Alexander R. Lees

"EFT is the most effective tool I've ever come across for removing an emotional issue, bar none. Where NLP is so valuable, is that it best equips you to gather information from the client, determine the emotional issue you are dealing with, and know the precise moment in which to begin tapping. To me, that's the definition of synergy."

Discover these exciting NLP techniques so you can apply EFT to any presented problem with elegance and ease.

You will learn the following skills:

- # HOW to help your client access the specific negative emotion ... so you can tap on it!
- # WHAT questions to ask because some clients have trouble describing their problem.
- # WHEN to listen because this skill, more than anything, will improve your success rate.
- # WHAT to listen for and organize your information gathering, so you follow a plan.

"This is very valuable information if you truly want to improve your human interaction and take your EFT skills to a higher, more effective level. It will help me to understand people better, and also help me with clients and their issues."

EFT is an excellent tool for editing feelings NLP is an excellent tool for editing thoughts and behaviours. When applying EFT we already use elements of NLP when we deal with generalizations & specifics, and in the use of our word patterns. In this workshops you will learn:

- # How to combine NLP & EFT in a powerful, synergistic way to help deal with any issue presented.
- # You will learn how to get rapport and keep it.
- # To recognize different communication styles.
- # A sure-fire way to "test" your EFT work.
